From schoolboy to biggest SA20 auction signing: How Jason Rowles became Joburg’s big bet

Source: TOI_Top_Stories

Jason Rowles, 18, a talented South African cricketer, was bought by Joburg Super Kings for R2.9 million, 14.5 times his base price, in the SA20 Season 5 Auction. Having excelled in youth cricket, Rowles now faces high expectations as part of a broader trend of investing in promising young players. The league aims to nurture talent while managing hype and pressure.