'Muzzled Democracy': Cong slams govt over mass detentions amid massive anti-SIR protests

Source: TOI_Top_Stories

Congress Party leaders have condemned the government's mass detentions during protests against Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar in Delhi. They assert that numerous individuals, including activists and students, were detained while trying to voice dissent. The party emphasized the right to protest as essential to democracy and criticized the government for its heavy-handed approach.