Zerodha’s Dinesh Pai sees an upside in US green card suspension for TCS, Infosys, Wipro

Source: TOI_Top_Stories

The US announced a suspension of eight technology and IT services companies from its green card labour certification programme. This decision affects companies like TCS, Infosys, and Wipro and impacts Indian professionals in the US. While the suspension halts new and pending applications, it does not affect existing visas or green cards. Industry experts suggest that work may shift from the US to India due to this situation.