Jantar Mantar protest: Delhi hotels allege booking curbs; traders fear hit to business

Source: TOI_Top_Stories

Hotel associations in Delhi report that police have advised against accepting bookings from the Delhi-NCR area. Authorities are particularly focusing on guests coming for short stays around the protest date. Members are encouraged to verify visitors' reasons for their stay, including checking identity documents. The impact of these security measures on local businesses and ordinary residents is a significant concern.