A season of opportunities: The selection battles that could reshape India’s T20I side

Source: TOI_Top_Stories

As the Indian team prepares for the next match, attention turns to finalising its squad for the highly anticipated 2028 T20 World Cup. Players like Sanju Samson and Vaibhav Sooryavanshi are under scrutiny to deliver strong performances, especially with fierce competition emerging. The team will also assess the potential of newcomers like Mayank Yadav and Prince Yadav. With high-scoring pitches expected, strategies will adapt accordingly.