Jantar Mantar protest: Delhi Police land at PGs with ‘parental guidance’

Source: TOI_Top_Stories

Around 50 residents at a north Delhi PG accommodation attended a police session regarding safety and protests. During the session, police advised students to avoid participating in a protest scheduled for October 10. They alleged that involvement could jeopardize future job prospects and lead to detention. Reports indicate police outreach extended to other student organizations and private coaching centers as well.