Detained from train on way to Delhi, 14 to stage anti-Gyanesh protest in Pune

Source: TOI_Top_Stories

Fourteen students and activists were detained while attempting to travel from Pune to Delhi by train. They aimed to participate in a national protest demanding electoral reforms and the resignation of CEC Gyanesh Kumar. After a habeas corpus petition was filed, a court ordered their release but they chose to protest in Pune instead. Allegations of excessive force and illegal confinement arose after their detention and treatment by police authorities.