

'We should not play Pakistan': WC winner after India refuse Asia Cup trophy from Naqvi

Source: TOI_Top_Stories

Harmanpreet Kaur-led India defeated Sri Lanka by 72 runs to win a record-extending eighth Women's Asia Cup title. However, the Indian players did not come out for the post-match presentation ceremony. Indian women's cricket team did not accept the Asia Cup trophy from Asian Cricket Council (ACC) chairman Mohsin Naqvi after winning the title on Sunday.