‘Mother was pushed, I wasn’t allowed to put on slippers’: Dhruv Rathee on detention

Source: TOI_Top_Stories

YouTuber Dhruv Rathee claimed he was forcibly removed from his home by police on October 10. He reported being held for nearly 23 hours without access to legal representation or communication. According to Rathee, he sustained injuries during the incident, which he described as a kidnapping. He also expressed concerns about media spreading misinformation regarding his citizenship status.