SC & HC judges being appointed by Modi, not collegium, says ex-judge

Source: TOI_Top_Stories

Former judge K Chandru criticized the lack of transparency in the judicial appointment process. He argued that the National Judicial Appointments Commission was never revived after being struck down by the Supreme Court. Justice S Muralidhar highlighted the lack of women judges elevated to the Supreme Court. Raju Ramachandran and Justice K Kannan also contributed discussions on relevant judicial topics.