CJP stir: Four men arrested over viral video of assault on protester

Source: TOI_Top_Stories

Four men have been arrested in Delhi after a viral social media video showed a woman being assaulted. The police took action after learning the accused planned to flee the Delhi-NCR region. No formal complaint has been filed by the alleged victim or any organization regarding the incident. The police acted swiftly upon receiving information about the accused's intention to abscond.