‘Going home to be with family as my grandmother has passed away’: Dipke

Source: TOI_Top_Stories

Ahead of a significant protest, Abhijeet Dipke, founder of the Cockroach Janta Party, was detained while rallying for Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar's resignation over alleged irregularities. Police claimed he was made aware of his grandmother’s demise, but family discussions reveal inconsistencies. Dipke intends to return home for family support during this tough time, while his party leaders prepare for a press conference on their next steps.