India eyes Rs 7.5 lakh crore investment, 100 GW nuclear capacity by 2047

Source: TOI_Top_Stories

India sets an ambitious goal of boosting its nuclear power capacity to 100 GW by 2047, prioritizing private investment to achieve this objective. With an investment estimated at Rs 7.5 lakh crore contributing 30 GW, the nation currently operates 8.78 GW across 24 reactors and aims for 22 GW by 2032.