

'Took 80 years to restore full glory of Vande Mataram': Amit Shah

Source: TOI_Top_Stories

Union Home Minister Amit Shah linked Indian language promotion to cultural nationalism. He defended the National Education Policy's multilingualism provisions as essential. Shah stressed linguistic diversity strengthens India's rich culture and history. He highlighted Maharashtra as a prime example of a multilingual state. The policy aims to foster familiarity with diverse Indian languages and cultures.