

'Recognise new realities': Malaysian PM as Kerala cleric defends remarks

Source: TOI_Top_Stories

Malaysian Prime Minister Anwar Ibrahim addressed religious scholars in Kozhikode, India. He emphasized the need to embrace modern technology and new scientific understanding. Ibrahim stressed protecting faith and moral values while acquiring knowledge and expertise. He received an excellence award from the Sheikh Abubacker Foundation. The Prime Minister also conveyed greetings from Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi.